

Mon petit monstre a...

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
un	deux	trois	quatre	cinq	six	sept	huit	neuf	dix	onze	douze	treize	quatorze	quinze

1. Écoutez! Listen to the song and match the French body part with the English term.

1. La tête
2. Les épaules
3. Les genoux
4. Les pieds
5. Les yeux
6. Les oreilles
7. La bouche
8. Le nez

- a) feet
- b) knees
- c) head
- d) eyes
- e) shoulders
- f) nose
- g) ears
- h) mouth

- 1 = C
- 2 =
- 3 =
- 4 =
- 5 =
- 6 =
- 7 =
- 8 =

2. Body part bingo! Choose 6 different body parts to fill your bingo card up and listen for them to be called out. All crossed off? Shout lotto!

3. Snake sentences. Split the snake sentence apart by adding sentences to reveal a description of a monster! Finished? Now translate it!

1. Monpetitmonstreasixtêtes.
2. Monpetitmonstreatroisyeux.
3. Monpetitmonstreaquatrebouches.
4. Monpetitmonstreadixoreilles.
5. Monpetitmonstreaneufpieds.

4. Use this space to draw the monster described in the listening task:

5. Ecrivez! Using the guidance on the board, describe your very own monster.

Mon petit monstre a _____

6. Use this space to draw your monster based on their description in French.

Le petit monstre

